The Weekend

Koinonia is many things, but most of all it is an experience to be lived.

The weekend is structured around a series of talks given by lay people and clergy. After each talk, there is a time of discussion in small groups. The talks provide thoughts for discussion and guidelines for life beyond the weekend.

The weekend is filled with informal conversation, singing, worship and laughter; but most of all it is filled with joy.

Attendance

Koinonia is open to adult Christians of any age, sex, race or denomination. Participants may be sponsored by anyone who has attended a Koinonia retreat or other similar Christian weekend.

The Camp

Koinonia uses church retreat centers within a two-hour drive of the Denver metro area.

After the Weekend

Koinonians are encouraged to become active disciples of Christ in their homes, their churches and their communities.

Koinonia nurtures this process after the weekend through:

Sharing Groups - small groups that meet regularly to encourage members' spiritual growth.

Ultreyas - monthly reunions open to all Koinonians with fellowship, sharing, worship, singing and food.

Rooster Tale Newsletter - informs the Koinonia community of future weekends, Ultreyas, prayer concerns and special happenings.

Our Vision

Is to provide a Christ-centered environment that encourages individual Christians to expand their potential as followers of Christ.

Koinonians focus on sharing Christ in their families, their churches, their work, and their communities.

We believe in the power of prayer and in the Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
