

Colorado Koinonia

Koinonia/ coy-no-nee-a (Greek) n: a gathering. We invite you to be a part of a Koinonia Weekend. The Koinonia Weekend is a gathering of people from different communities for learning, sharing and inspiring experience in Christian living. Its purpose is to share God's love of each person and the depth of that love for us as expressed through Jesus Christ. Koinonia is a multi-denominational Christian community that uses prayer, fellowship and the sharing of common experiences to help an individual feel acceptance in the kingdom of God. In feeling this acceptance, an individual, with support from other members of the Koinonia community, can focus on becoming a better Christian and an active member of his/her own church.

The Koinonia Weekend is many things, but most of all it is an experience to be lived. It is filled with many things – much informal conversation, singing, worship, and laughter, but most of all it is filled with joy. Within the 44 hours of the Weekend, a c o-ed group of complete strangers evolve into a true Christian community. The Weekend is structured around a series of talks by laypeople and clergy. The talks cover such topics as God's grace, study of His word, Christian action, and other subjects relevant to laypeople. After each talk, there is a time for discussion within a small group. The talks provide thought for discussion and guideline s for life beyond the Weekend.
